- Most references are by date and category. The abbreviations used for categories are on p. 2. Exceptions: page numbers are used for references to the Introduction, to Appendixes 1 and 2, and to the combination of images that appears on the first page of each decade.
- Illustrations are flagged with $, excerpts with ¶. These will be found in chronological order at the end of each decade. Combinations: “Adventures of Tom Sawyer (Twain): 1876 Fic with $ and ¶” means there’s both an illustration and an excerpt for that entry. “Vanderbilt, William H.: 1890s Econ $” means the subject appears only in the illustration for that entry.
- The main entry for a topic is usually the one with an illustration or excerpt.
- The Major Events category is not indexed, because it is merely a summary of the material in the main text.
- For more on the choices made in the Index, see p. 367-368 of Timeline 1800-1899.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

WHERE TO FIND MY WORK

- BOOKS (many of these are mentioned in Appendix 2 of Timeline 1800-1899): Available in print and ebook format from Amazon (search “Dianne L. Durante”) and in print and ebook format from Ingram, which sells to brick-and-mortar bookstores such as Barnes & Noble.
- SUBSTACK (<https://substack.com/@DianneDuranteWriter>): Beginning in August 2024, I’ve sent supporters a decade a month in the Timeline 1700-1900 project. Timeline 1900-2021 will begin in October 2026. Free subscribers receive several posts a month on topics such as the history of education in the US, the background of the Russo-Ukrainian War, the history of immigration in the US, speeches celebrating Independence Day in the US, and the use of artificial intelligence in historical research.
- PERSONAL WEBSITE (Dianne DuranteWriter): Essays written over the past 20 years, mostly on art and art history. Among the topics: Central Park, outdoor sculpture in New York City, Gilded Age mansions, favorite museums, and the controversy over removal of public sculptures. For a list of my major works in reverse chronological order, see <https://diannedurantewriter.com/books-essays>
- YOUTUBE (@diannedurantewriter): Includes videos of my blog posts and a few of my Substack posts.
- INSTAGRAM (@diannedurante). A few years ago I posted images of every outdoor sculpture in New York City, in chronological order, with links to blog posts and pages on my website. Otherwise, I’m only on Instagram when I need to be soothed by the sight of floral arrangements or tiny houses.
- FACEBOOK (@ForgottenDelights): I’m rarely on the site.
- TWITTER / X (@NYCsculpture): rarely there, either, except to announce major new projects.
- EMAIL: contact me via Substack or (much preferred) email me directly at DuranteDianne@gmail.com.
